

What is Coach Christen talking about in each video?

Normalize Nerves - Understand that racing is really a form of risking "failure" (not going X time or getting X cut). But this is a normal part of the sport to be in those pressure situations, so instead of feeling nervous you should feel courageous in your effort to race & be willing to risk failure.